

FPA MEMBERS ONLY

Buyer's Guide

A comprehensive look at FPA's Member Benefits

Florida
Psychological Association

FPA members can take advantage of professional practice discount benefits, which provide substantial savings on various industry-related services and products. These discounts often cover a wide range of offerings, including insurance, legal services, office supplies, and software tools essential for professional practice. By leveraging these exclusive discounts, FPA members can reduce their operational costs and invest in high-quality resources, enhancing their efficiency and effectiveness. This benefit not only supports members as individual professionals in their daily operations, but also contributes to the overall growth and sustainability of their practices. FPA is always on the lookout for even more opportunities to make your membership even more valuable. Should you have any questions or ideas about additional benefits, please email Kim Campbell, Marketing and Communications Manager.

The Trust, established in 1962, is an independent trust offering insurance, financial security, and risk management programs for psychologists and related individuals nationwide. The Trust program is continually monitored by the Trustees – psychologists experienced in both practice and insurance needs and independent insurance experts – to ensure that coverage is broad and meets the ever changing environment in the discipline and profession of psychology.

The Trust is proud to recognize the FPA as a valued participant in our State Endorsement Program. Providing support to state associations and their members is important to us at The Trust.

Through this partnership, FPA benefits from funding provided by The Trust for continuing education, while members get access to a library of on-demand webinars, state-sponsored workshops, and a variety of insurance programs.

Earn CE & Save Up To 15%!

Members can also show their support for FPA - and earn a 15% discount on their Trust Professional Liability policy for two policy renewals - when they purchase one of the following Ethics and Risk Management Webinars. Be sure to select "Florida" as your Trust-endorsed state.
